Miscellaneous Northern News.

New York fashionable society has had a "sensation," in the elopement of Mrs. Schoolcraft, of Geneva, N. Y., a niece of Secretary Seward, with Dr. Beattie, "her physician and intimate friend." The absconding lady is a widow, and the Doctor leaves behind him a wife and family. They took passage in a late steamer for Europe. The worst of the joke is that Mrs. Beattie gave a grand entertainment in honor of Mrs. S.'s departure for Europe, little thinking that she was about to "cause the grief" through her friend's charms.

The correspondent of the New York Express announces that by the evacuation of James Island all chance of approaching Charleston by any feasible land route has been abandoned. The Federal troops have also retired from Edisto Island, and now only hold Hilton Head, Beaufort, Pulaski, and their immediate dependencies.

In a speech at Boston last week Hon. Charles H. Clarke (son of the present Governor of Texas,) said he was with Gen. Houston in his last moments, and he died with the "good old flag" about him. It has not before been stated that he was dead.

At St. Stephens, New Brunswick, the Herald, the only paper published in that province that favored the Federal cause, was mobbed on the 28th, and the type thrown into the river.

The funeral of ex-President Van Buren was largely attended. Gov. Morgan, of New York; Hon. Goveneur Kemble, and others, were mourners at Kinderhook on the occasion.

Gen. Sherman, at Memphis, has ordered that no more gold shall be paid for cotton, and venders refusing current funds shall forfeit half their cotton.

Thomas Comer, a well-known actor and musician, died on Monday evening at the Broomfield House, Boston, aged 72 years.

The Rev. Messrs. Ford, Baldwin, and Elliott, of Nashville, were sent to the Indiana penitentiary on the 29th.

A man, for "advocating Jeff. Davis and chivalry," was ducked in a pond on Boston Commons last week.

There are said to be about two regiments of Federal deserters straggling about the State of Wisconsin.

Guerillas Hung—What says the Government?

General Fitch, late Senator from Indiana, now leading a brigade at St. Charles, in Arkansas, has just hung two guerillas, in pursuance of pledges to do so in case of the murder of any of his men. The first engineer of the Lexington was shot while sitting at the port hole. General Fitch immediately took two of the citizens of St. Charles and hung them in a public place in the town. It is simply suicidal and senseless for the South to be fighting on principles of humanity and civilization when the enemy is violating every rule of war. "Fight the devil with fire" is the philosophy of common sense and common humanity.

FEMALE RELATIVES OF NEW YORK VOLUNTEERS DEMANDING RELIEF.—We see by the New York papers that another crowd of destitute women, relatives of the volunteers, assembled in the City Hall, of New York, to demand relief at the hands of the Mayor. His Honor, in addressing them, explained that "the Comptroller's funds had run out, and that futher relief was out of the question, until a new appropriation should be made by the Common Council. He regretted, he said, their suffering, but held out no hope that the corporation would take any futher steps to relieve them."

Is it not a shame—a burning shame to Americans—that while the Administration is expending one hundred thousand dollars per day in supporting the lazy, trifling negroes, the wives and families of the men who have volunteered should be suffering for the actual necessities of life—be forced to beg for enough to keep soul and body together? The amount spent daily on the negroes, by those in power, would be sufficient to alleviate the wants of most, it not all of those in want. What better right has the negro to our bounty than our own race? What clause in the Consstitution requires that negroes should be supported at the public expense, while the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of the American soldiers are left to suffer and starve? Charity begins at home, and our first duty is to see that our own flesh and blood is taken care of and protected. If, after doing this, we have means to spare, it will be time enough to seek outside among the negroes for objects of charity.—Dayton [Ohio] Daily Empire.

THE NEWS FROM ALABAMA.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Post says the news from Northern Alabama "does not put the Department in good humor." He adds:

It is calculated that the enemy has destroyed fifteen millions of dollars' worth of property within the last thirty days, or half a million per day. These successful raids will compel General Halleck to change his plains in the West. No Government can long endure such losses as have been entailed upon us by scattering our army over a line of a thousand miles. The system was adopted under the supposition that Beauregard's fine army was entirly destroyed. It turns out that the bulk of that army is still in the South, and the rest is at Charleston and Richmond. The national troops will be forced to concentrate upon two or three very important points, and give up the attempt to run long lines of railway.

REVIVAL.—During the past week the Baptist Church in this city have been blessed with a glorious revival. On Sunday night six ladies were baptised, several candidates remaining over. The meetings will be continued during this week. Oh! for a revival throughout the Confederacy.—Macon Telegraph.

"STONEWALL" AFTER POPE.

POPE DRIVEN FROM HIS POSITION.

CAPTURE OF YANKEE PRISONERS.

GORDONSVILLE, Aug. 10.

The battle of Southwestern Mountain was fought yesterday. It is a complete victory over the enemy.

Stonewall has repulsed Pope and drove him several miles from his position.

Three hundred prisoners have arrived including one Brigadier General, Prince, and twenty-nine officers.

Gen. Chas. S. Winder was killed.

From Missouri.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT NEWS.

THE STATE OVERRUN BY REBELS.

CAIRO THREATENED.

The Yankees Terribly Alarmed.

MOBILE, Aug. 9.

A special dispatch to the Mobile Tribune, dated Grenada, Aug. 9, says the St. Louis Republican of the 4th reports that the Rebel Guerillas have taken complete possession of Missouri, and that they are daily growing into a vast army. Nearly thirty thousand of them have crossed the Missouri River under Porter and Joe Thompson, clearing out the Home Guards and Militia, as they progress. They are also raising numberless recruits for the Confederate Army.

Six hundred men have turned up at Bird Point, threatening Cairo, where there is but a small garrison.

Gov. Gamble finds it impossible under the circumstances to get the Militia to respond to his call and has issued another important appeal to them to rally—complaining of their apathy in the Federal cause.

The Guerillas in Arkansas.

MOBILE, August 10.

A special dispatch to the Mobile Tribune, dated Grenada July 8, says: The Memphis Bulletin of the 8th says that the Confederates have inaugurated guerilla warfare in Arkansas on an extensive scale, and mentions several brilliant exploits that have occurred. On Sunday the guerillas attacked too Yankee regiments, dispursing them, and completely capturing sixty wagons of provisions and over three hundred stolen negroes. Twenty-seven of the latter escaped the same day.

The guerillas bagged another party near Jacksonport, killing seventeen and capturing twenty wagons of provisions.

Ninety more were attacked near Helena and nearly aunihilated, only two escaping.

Destruction of the Arkansas.

RICHMOND, August 8.

A dispatch from Gen. Van Dorn to Secretary Mallory states that the Confederate ram Arkansas, Lieut. Stevenson commanding, has been destroyed.

She left Vicksburg on Monday to cooperate in the attack on Baton Rouge, and after passing Bayou Lara, her machinery became deranged. When attempting to adjust it several gunboats attacked her, and after a gallant resistance, she was abandoned and blown up. The officers and crew reached the shore in safety.

From Baton Rouge.

MOBILE, Aug. 8.

A special dispatch to the Advertiser & Register, dated Jackson, Miss., Aug. 8th says: General Van Dorn permits me to copy the following dispatches:

AMITE RIVER, Aug. 6.

About one o'clock this morning, the Federal gunboats attacked the Confederate ram Arkansas. Messengers inform me; she fought them well for some time, inflicting great damage. She was then blown up by her crew. The messenger thinks they all escaped.

Signed J. C. BRECKINRIDGE.

FURTHER FROM BATON ROUGE.

COLLITS RIVER, TEN MILES FROM BATON ROUGE, Aug. 6.—We occupied the whole of the town and battle field till evening, but no decisive result was gained after my last dispatch. There being no water between here and the Mississippi river, compelled me to come here. I moved at my own time and in order.

The Arkansas laid with machinery injured five miles above town all day yesterday. Her commander sent me word last evening that he would try to get up the river, asks if possible to send a boat to aid him. From reports she is permanently unserviceable.

We burned nearly all of their camp and a large amount of stores, and eat them up badly. Gen. Williams and other prominent officers are killed.

Signed JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE.

Rumor says Gen. Clarke is prisoner. Parties from the field say our land victory was complete. The ground was strewn with their dead and wounded.

Curtis won't Go.

MOBILE, August 10.

The Memphis correspondent of the Chicago Times says that Curtis has refused to obey Grants order to go to Vicksburg, unless he is ordered from Washington. Curtis says that four weeks campaign before Vicksburg would reduce his army one half, as it did Davis' fleet. Before summer was over he would not have a man left.

From Tazewell.

MOBILE, Aug. 10.

A special dispatch to the Advertiser & Register from Knoxville, Aug. 8, says: No official report of the particulars of the battle of Tazewell has yet been received.

It is ascertained, however, that the enemy occupied a strong position on High Ridge, which was carried by assault. The enemys force engaged was comprised of brigades amounting to six thousand men.

Our loss turns out not as heavy as was reported.

Other movements are shortly expected.

Mormons in Rebellion

MOBILE, Aug. 10.

A serious rebellion is reported among the Mormons, which, it is feared, will result in a war with the Federal Government.

Draft in New York.

MOBILE, Aug. 10.

The Governor of New York has officially announced his determination to resort to drafting in that State.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEWBERN

Daily and Weekly Progress,

IS ALREADY KNOWN TO THE PUBLIC as the most convenient entrance of Burnside into Newbern on Friday last was compelled for temporary suspension of the PROGRESS. This was a barbarous and villainous proceeding of old Burnside, inasmuch as it has deprived the public of the advantages of a good paper, besides the inconvenience to the citizens of Newbern.

By the discomfiture of our arms at Newbern, I have lost everything I had in the world—presses, type, and stock and other office material and furniture and dwelling—all gone—but still I hope to be able to make arrangements at an early day to issue the PROGRESS at some point not very remote from the old stand; this will depend however upon the extent to which Burnside is able to penetrate the bowels of the land.

Having lost all I had, I must urge all who are indebted to the PROGRESS office to make immediate settlement. Though in the army my address will be for the present, Goldsboro, N. C.

Papers in the State that receive the PROGRESS in exchange will please copy or notice this card.

PROSPECTUS

HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER,

PUBLISHED BY

DENNIS HEART.

HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the advancement and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall continue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit to lovely-written and ill-digested articles, though occasionally some boy will send a communication for the RECORDER. In our Political department we shall take special pains to present to our readers the news of the day, and to publish as far as we can, those facts and events most interesting at home and abroad.

Payment always in advance.

Any of our old subscribers who will obtain five subscribers and remit to us cash, shall receive their own paper free of charge.

THE LITERARY PAPER of the South

"EVERY FAMILY SHOULD READ IT"

THE TIMES.

THE CHEAPEST! THE BEST! THE MOST ILLUSTRATED SOUTHERN FAMILY PAPER.

THE TIMES is neither political nor Sectarian, but is the constant aim of the Editors to fill its columns with the choicest Historical, Literary and Family reading, and with a large selection of all the news of the day, both foreign and domestic.

The 19th volume commences with the new year 1863. Every effort will be made to make it's the most brilliant year in the history of THE TIMES. It will commence with Three Beautiful Prize Stories.

Its illustrations will be increased; and its typographical appearance will be improved by a still better dress. The Publishers are determined to keep pace with the improvements of the age; their motto is "PROGRESSION," and as the circulation of THE TIMES enlarges each year, they are determined to add new attractions to its columns and make it the literary paper of the South. With these improvements the Publishers confidently expect several thousand increase in circulation.

A SOUTH CAROLINA PAPER.

THE TIMES

A large, Eight Page Weekly, published in Greenville, S. C., at $2.00 a year; $1 00 for six months.

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is not sectarian nor political, but by the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns only matter that interests the people and encourages them, the publishers would earnestly solicit the families of North Carolina to give it their support for six months, to see if it is not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to sustain our publishers and our enterprise among strangers. GIVE THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

CHARLESTON MERCURY

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL AND LITERARY

DAILY PAPER

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. In connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interests, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799, the sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the rights of the States; Free Trade and no commercial Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

HAVING purchased of Maj. Geo. Seabrook this popular journal, I have removed its place of publication to Columbia, and will hereafter issue it from this city.

Feeling confident that such a journal is greatly needed in this State and believing that it will be sustained, if issued in the heart of the State and conducted with spirit and ability, I have determined to make the FARMER AND PLANTER all that can be desired by the agriculturist, and will spare no pains to render it worthy the support of the public.

The Journal of Commerce on the Confiscation Bill.

The New York Journal of Commerce has a long article on the Confiscation bill, recently passed by the United States Congress. It utterly denies any right of the United States to emancipate a slave under any circumstances, and adds:

The Confiscation Act proceeds upon the assumption that for offences against the United States, Congress can act on the legal condition of other persons within a State, and change that condition, against the State law.

* * * If those who are in the condition of slavery under the law of a State can be declared free by Congress for the crime of the master or owner, then it is only necessary for a single offence to be committed in any State against the United States, to enable Congress to exercise control over the legal condition of any or all of the inhabitants of that State.

If this act had undertaken to forfeit the property right of the master to the United States, to be sold like any other right of property, then it would at least have been a practical law. But when it undertakes to say that certain persons who are slaves under the law of a State shall have their legal condition changed, although they commit no offence, and do not set against the United States, it is clearly a usurpation which furnishes a direct motive to the slave States for continuing their resistance.

The attitude now assumed, therefore, by the Federal Government is this: For an offence against the United States the legal condition of certain persons in a State, under the State law, who have not committed any offence, is changed, against the will of the State, and they are to be taken out of the State, also against its will, and transported beyond its limits and to a foreign country. If Mr. Jefferson Davis, or Mr. Benjamin, or any other leader of the rebellion, could have devised legislation better adapted to consolidate that rebellion, they are more cunning than we had supposed them.

Proclamation of Gov. Magoffin, of Kentucky.

Gov. Magoffin has issued a proclamation calling the Kentuchy Legislature to meet on the 14th of August. It concludes as follows:

A civil conflict is impending over us. I am without a soldier or a dollar to protect the lives, property and liberties of the people or to enforce the law. Daily appeals are being made to me, as the Governor of the State, to protect our citizens from marauding bands and in the peaceful enjoyment of their property and rights under the constitution. I am left without the power and means to afford relief, and I am consequently left no alternative but to appeal to you, their representatives, in the hope that it will not be in vain. Any attempt on my part to organize a force for that purpose will certainly but precipitate the evil, and I therefore not unwillingly convene the General Assembly, that they may determine themselves the extent of the authority to be granted by them, and, looking to the policy adopted in the State, and to the late action of Congress and the President touching slavery, and to provide for the safety of our institutions and the peace and tranquility of the Commonwealth.

The French Fleet in the Gulf.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says:

It is stated, on good authority, that when the news of the departure of the three iron-clad frigates—La Couronne, L'Invincible and La Normandie—for the Gulf of Mexico, together with several wooden frigates and line-of-battle ships, reached Washington, our Secretary of State, Mr. Seward, wrote immediately to the French government, and made strong remonstrances against the presence, in the vicinity of the United States, of such a formidable fleet. Mr. Seward gave as the reason for his protest that the Mexican expedition being of too little consequence to justify the sending of such a tremendous armement in American waters, the American government could not help thinking that it is destined to act against the United States. It would, in consequence, ask from the French Government an explanation on that subject.

War.—Delegations of radicals are here from various parts of the North importuning the administration to accept regiments of negroes from these States. They threaten to retard enlistments until their propositions are accepted. One of them declare that his Congressional district will not furnish a man until this shall be done, but promises a negro regiment in two weeks. This is a new phase of the radical warfare upon the administration. Their course is attributed to two motives—one to compel the administration to adopt their policy of arming the blacks, and the other, the most potent reason, to get rid of the competition of free colored laborers and emancipated negroes with the white working men of their district.—Yankee paper.

In Ohio, the fugitive negroes are employed at 10 cents per day. This is not enough to buy the most common clothing—certainly not half as much as is expended by three-fourths of Southern slaveowners in the care of each negro. If a negro man in his prime can earn only ten cents a day, what will become of him in his old age? How will the women and children live?

* * *

Alluding to the application of Governor Letcher, to the Secretary of War, to deliver over to the State authorities of Virginia, all traitors who have been taken in arms against the State authorities, the Columbus Sun says:

If this thing had been done and properly carried out in Tennessee and other border States twelve months ago, Toryism would be at rest in East Tennessee and Western Virginia. Why was this not done?

The Election—Sober Thoughts.

That our readers may learn the sentiments of the conductors of a few of the papers of North Carolina, we append a couple of extracts in reference to the election just closed, and the policy that has been pursued by some of the friends of the candidates. The Spirit of the Age, published at Raleigh, says:

THE ELECTION.—The election for Governor and members of the Legislature took place last Thursday, and right glad are we that the disgraceful contest is over. We cannot, at so early a day, say who has been elected Governor, or what will be the political complexion of the Legislature. Either Colonel Vance or Colonel Johnston will make a worthy, competent, patriotic Governor—and those who have villified either, for party purposes, will now admit the fact. How heartless and disreputable is that system of political tactics, which requires editors and others to deal in falsehood and slander against an honorable opponent.

Let whosoever may be returned as Governor and Legislators, if our common enemy believe that their election is any evidence of sympathy for the old Union, or indicative of a disposition to cease the struggle for Southern Independence and Southern Nationality, the sequel will prove how egregiously they have been deceived. North Carolina is as true to the Southern Confederacy as the needle to the pole, and she will never give up the struggle till the victory is ours, final and complete.

The annexed is from the Editorial Department of the Milton Chronicle:

THE ELECTIONS.—The Elections that come off to-morrow, apart from a desire to see honest and intelligent men elected, do not excite the least interest with us. Let who may be elected, we take it for granted that all will be well; that all are friends to the South and enemies to Old Abe. We expect to vote for Governor to-morrow, Thursday, but for whom let to-morrow decide. Whatever party complexion this election has assumed, the readers of this paper can bear witness that we have had no hand in it. The senior Editor, to avoid the accusation of pandering to party predilections, has carefully avoided an expression of choice between the two candidates. Indeed he has had no choice. But he must make one to-morrow, and he thinks that choice must be in Vance's favor, for the following reasons: 1st, To satisfy the Yankees that they are most outrageously mistaken if they infer from the tone of the press in opposition to Colonel Vance that his supporters are Union sympathisers, or that one of his supporters would not shoot a live Yankee just as quick as the quickest of Mr. Johnston's supporters. 2ndly, The papers opposed to Col. Vance, in their hot zeal to defeat him, have, we fear, conveyed the idea to the enemy that Vance's friends are their friends, and if he is not elected to convince them of this error, they may keep on thinking so. And 3rdly, He is Mr. Johnston's equal in every other respect.

Now, the Junior Editor took ground for Col. Johnston before Col. Vance came into the field, and has persisted in his support, not from any objection to Col. Vance, but from a desire to retain his valuable services in the field. Thus it will be seen that the senior and junior are not a "unit" in this election. Well, we raised that boy to do his own thinking and voting, and he does it.

It is to be deeply regretted that some of the papers in this State have pursued a course in opposition to Col. Vance, such as is calculated to create a very false impression in the North. Even if it were true that we have a party of Union sympathisers here, how very imprudent to gazette it to the enemy! Friends, henceforth, let us mend our manners and do better.

* * *

By a recent arrival at a Confederate port (says the Wilmington Journal,) we have Nassau dates to the 30th ult. By the same medium we learn that the steamer "Oreto" (this is the exact speling) which had been seized and detained as a Confederate War vessel was released on last Friday.

The Federal cruisers capture vessels bound to Nassau under English colors within sight of land, on the plea that they have run, are going to run, or have goods that are designed to run the blockade. We confess to a good deal of surprise at learning the extent and character of the outrages to which the once proud mistress of the seas has submitted to the hands of Lincoln's armed vessels.

Nassau is a "secesh" port—the very negroes go for the Confederacy—for the business of "running the blockade" from that port has given it a start which it never had before, and there, too, the price of provisions has gone up largely on account of the unprecedented number of vessels calling for supplies, especially in the way of vegetables. The Yankees will let nothing be shipped from any Northern port except on the shipper giving bond that it is not, in any event, to be carried to any port in the Confederate States. Even goods brought by the Cunard steamers to New York can only be re-shipped on the same conditions.

It must be confessed that the British colonial press is rather un-original. Editorial there seems to be none. The American civil war, directly or indirectly is the topic which, in one way or another, fills the columns of the Nassau press. The battles before Richmond had been heard from and rejoiced over almost as much in Nassau as in the Southern States.

We cut the following from the Nassau Advertiser of the 30th ult, in regard to the capture of British vessels in British waters, on suspicion of carrying contraband of war:—

THE FEDERAL SHIP "ADIRONDAC."—This ship sailed from here to day. She sailed under sealed orders from New York for these waters, and we understand that the Federal Government has despatched several other vessels for the same destination. Since her strange conduct in chasing and firing upon the British steamer Herald within a mile and a half or two miles of our harbour, she has been quietly lying at anchor outside of Hog Island. We understand that Captain Gansevoort asserts his right to capture vessels suspected of carrying contraband of war within three miles of any coast.

No doubt the Home Government will be placed in possession of all the facts connected with this case, by our Colonial Government, and that ample satisfaction will be demanded from the Federal Government for this apparently wrongful act of its servants.

We notice in the Nassau Advertiser of the 19 ult., pretty long quotations from the telegraphic and editorial columns of the Wilmington Journal, in relerence to the six days fight near Richmond. This informs us of the fact that a small vessel which carried out a file from a port in this State must have arrived safe.

Movements below Richmond.

On Wednesday morning, (says the Richmond Examiner,) our army moved down in force to offer battle to the enemy on Malvern Hill. But on reaching the now famous heights only a few yankee stragglers were to be seen, the main body, as was learned from some of these stragglers, who were taken prisoners, having, on becoming aware of our approach, retreated precipitately towards their encampment at Berkley.

It does not appear to have been the desire of our generals to re-occupy Malvern Hill, but to drive the enemy out of it. For reasons hitherto more than once mentioned in this paper, the position is not for us a desirable one, but at the same time we no not choose that the enemy shall hold it in quiet possession.

We hear the opinion expressed in well informed military circles that the recent advance of the enemy on this position was but a feint, designed to cover his evacuation of his James river base. If this conjecture be correct the late demonstration in the direction of Petersburg was undoubtedly a part of the same design. In this connection, the fact of there being so large a number of apparently idle transports lying in the river at the time of General Pendleton's night attack assumes a significance.

In the absence of all means of arriving at a certain conclusion, we forbear to express decided opinion on this subject.

* * *

FEARS OF "STONEWALL" IN THE NORTH.—The many rumors of Stonewall Jackson marching against Washington are causing another great scare in the North. The Philadelphia Inquirer says:

President Lincoln has received letters from a Union man in Washington, stating that the writer has information of an intended advance on this city by "Stonewall" Jackson. The President's informant has just returned from Virginia and obtained his information of Jackson's intention from what he considered reliable and authoritative secession source, and it was given him under a misapprehension as to his real position. Jackson declares that he was in Baltimore a few days ago, and obtained reliable and complete information regarding the number and position of forces and fortifications about that city and in the District of Columbia. The gentleman who considers it his duty to furnish this information to the President, is at least a man of veracity and intelligence, and believes that there is reason to apprehend something from Jackson's plans.

* * *

PENALTY FOR PASSING COUNTERFEIT CONFEDERATE NOTES.—The penalty for passing counterfeit Confederate notes is death. An Act of the last session of the Provisional Congress provides this punishment for this crime, during the existence of the present war between the Confederate and the United States, and until within one year after the ratification of a peace. The same penalty applies in the case of altering or passing any altered Treasury note of the Confederate States.

* * *

PRISONERS FROM MALVERN HILL.—Thirty Yankee prisoners were, yesterday, received at the Libby prison from Malvern Hill, which, we learn, is again in our possession, having been re-taken in a skirmish on Thursday, resulting in the capture of the above prisoners, and the loss of a few men on our side taken prioners.

No officers were among the Yankees taken by our army on Thursday, which is a fact too significant to escape remark. If taken, they have concealed their rank by the substitution of privates' clothing, which is easy enough among so many, and thus the much vaunted lex talionis falls to the ground. If such is the fact, that there are officers among them in disguise, the utter absurdity of the retaliatory order of the President is too plainly revealed to need any comment.

We have heard a good story on Stonewall Jackson. It has come to be commonly said in camp that nobody knows Stonewall's secrets except his old negro body servant. Some one talking to the old negro asked him how he came to be so much in the confidence of his master.—"Lord, sir," said he, master never tells me nothing; but the way I knows is this—Massa says his prayers twice a day, morning and night; but if he gets out of bed two or three times in the night to pray, you see I just commences packing my haversack, for I knows there will be the devil to pay next day.

* * *

FRENCH ADVOCACY OF AN ARRANGEMENT.—The battle before Richmond is looked upon as a complete defeat for the Federal troops. The most devoted partisans of the North admit that the reverse is of the most serious character, not only for the position of Gen. McClellan, but also for the Northern cause. Within the space of one week here are two great battles both lost by the North. Under these circumstances it is hoped that the partisans of an arrangement will be emboldened to raise their voice.—Paris Moniteur.
